Later reports indicate that the entire British force, including the recently arrived infantry and artillery are hotly engaged to the west of the town.

Mafeking Is In Danger.

Cape Town, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]—Col. Baden Powell's defeat in a sortie arouses much apprehension as to his ability to hold Mafeking much longer. The nearest relief is Col. Plummer's force from Rhodesia. With two thousand men he has progressed from Fort Tuli to Mochudi, where he was last heard from in a dispatch dated January 1. His force is believed to be easily large enough to relieve Mafeking.

Excitement in Germany

Durban, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]—The German warship Condor has arrived. The negroes aboard the German steamer Bundesrath, which is still held by the British as a prize, have been landed, but the whites are still detained on the vessel. The prize court meets next week.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]—A report was current today that a German steamer had been seized at Naples by the British, added to the popular excitement. The report lacks foundation, as the German consul at Naples has not notified the government.

A dispatch from Aden says that the German imperial steamer General, detained there by the British on suspicion of carrying contraband, has been released.

Bundesrath Was Well Known

London, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]—A Cape Town dispatch says the release of the steamer Mashona seized with American flour arouses less interest than the Bundesrath seizure, as the latter, it is claimed, was known for over a year as a carrier of war materials for the Transvaal.

A Belmont dispatch says that Colonel Pilcher's evacuation of Douglass with the loyal inhabitants, was covered by two companies of Canadians who held the mountain pass six miles out to prevent any attempt of the Boers to break up Pilcher's column.

VAGANCY ON THE TAX COMMISSION

JUDGE EMIL BAENSCH SAID TO BE A CANDIDATE.

Col W. J. Anderson the Governor's Private Secretary Also In the Race—Editors to Meet in Green Bay In February—La Follette Has Taken a New Partner.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 6.—The vacancy on the state tax commission will be filled this week by Governor Scofield. A new interest in the appointment has been added through a campaign which Judge Emil Baensch is said to have inaugurated to secure the vacant place.

Judge Baensch has announced himself a candidate, and has written to friends around the state asking them to use their influence to secure the appointment for him.

Up to the entrance of Judge Baensch into the field it had been expected among those who were watching the matter closely that the person most likely to get the vacant place on the commission was Colonel W. J. Anderson, the private secretary of Governor Scofield. Colonel Anderson, for some time, has given a great deal of study to the taxation problem, and is now said to be an authority on the questions arising therefrom.

Whoever is appointed will serve as one of the assistants on the commission, as Governor Scofield, it is said, will advance Judge Gilson to the leadership, a position for which his abilities especially fit him.

WOMAN ISSUE IS UP IN KANSAS

Capt. Seaton Opposes the Employment of the Female Sex By the State Assembly.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 6.—Captain John Seaton of Atchinson, who has represented his city in the Kansas legislature for nearly twenty years, and who came near securing the republican nomination for governor in 1898, today announced his candidacy for reelection to the lower branch of the legislature on an issue probably never before raised by a candidate for legislative honors.

Captain Seaton says that if he lives and is elected to the legislature he will introduce a bill prohibiting the employment of women by either branch of the legislature, or in any of the state departments or state institutions. He says the employment of women about legislatures has been the cause of more misery and the downfall of more women than any other cause known.

"Women," he says, "must run the gamut of the paid lobbyists who infest state and national capitals, and these men are usually without honor or conscience. If Kansas would lead out in this reform and prohibit the employment of women in any branch of the state government other states would follow and soon the federal government would take action. I do not think women have, as a rule, the courage or will power to resist the temptations that beset them around legislative bodies. Therefore I am in favor of a law that will prohibit their employment as clerks or stenographers in public offices."

GREEKS WILL BE MERRY TODAY

Will Hold Christmas Services In Various Chicago Churches.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—In accordance with the calendar of the Greek Catholic church, the feast of Christmas will be observed all over the world today by members of that faith. The Greeks in Chicago have been making elaborate preparations for several weeks and the celebration will consist of religious ceremonies and merry-making. On the invitation of Rt. Rev. A. Tychon, bishop of Alaska and Aleutian islands, came from his home in San Francisco to participate. He will remain a week in Chicago.

The "Hretagras," or Christmas holiday of the Greek church is one of the most important in the calendar of that organization and is a day of mingled prayer and rejoicing. At 12 o'clock last night the Greek churches in the city were open to parishioners. The edifices were decorated with evergreen and ferns and thousands of candles burned.

PILE INJUNCTION UPON INJUNCTION

MILWAUKEE MAYOR AND ALDERMAN IN HOT WATER.

Fourth Injunction Issued On New Grounds—Contempt Proceedings Are Started In Another Court—All Complications and Technicalities Known to Legal Practice Are Employed.

Milwaukee, Jan. 6.—Yesterday marked three important stages of the legal proceedings over the street railway controversy in Milwaukee.

The proceedings against Mayor David S. Rose, City Clerk Schuengel and twenty-four street car aldermen to determine whether they are in contempt of court, were begun before Judge Ludwig of the Superior court, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

The day was spent by the lawyers in arguments on the question of jurisdiction and other legal points, which were unfinished when the session closed, and this will be resumed on Monday.

Meanwhile the validity of the injunction secured by H. A. Schwartzburg restraining the officials and company from enacting the ordinance is undetermined, and the ordinance is not yet legally in force because the company has not yet filed its acceptance of the franchise.

Enjoined From Acceptance

But even should the company decide to disregard the Schwartzburg and Paine injunctions before they have been dissolved, it could not accept the ordinance without violating still another injunction issued yesterday.

In the afternoon there was served upon Mayor Rose, City Clerk Schuengel and Vice President Henry C. Payne of the Street Railway company, notice of an injunction issued against them by Court Commissioner R. N. Austin, restraining the Street Railway company from accepting the ordinance and the city officials from receiving the acceptance on behalf of the city.

Later in the day a notice was served upon Mayor Rose, Chairman Corcoran of the common council, City Clerk Schuengel and General Manager John J. Beggs of the Street Railway company, citing them to show cause this morning, before Judge Williams of the Superior court, why they should not be held in contempt of court for violating the injunction issued on behalf of Cassius M. Paine in the suit brought in the name of the state to prevent the passage of the ordinance.

SISTER AUGUSTA IS IN SAFE CARE

Kemper Hall Sisters Feel That Great Disgrace Has Been Brought On Them.

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 6.—The Sisters of St. Mary at Kemper hall are no longer watching along the shores of the lake for the body of Sister Augusta who disappeared from the hall on last Tuesday.

The mail yesterday brought a letter, which, while it did not explain the mysterious disappearance of the sister allayed the fears of the other members of the order, and assured them that the missing woman was safe.

But the crosses and insignia of the order which were laid aside at the time of her flight from Kemper hall, will never be restored to Sister Augusta and in a few weeks Miss Augusta Henderson will again open her door to the world in the little city of Springfield, Mo. The letter, which explained the actions of the sister, who it transpires has broken her vows, was addressed to Sister Augusta herself, but in her absence it was opened by the sister superior. The letter was from an old college friend of Miss Henderson and assured her that all arrangements had been made to receive her at the home in Springfield.

It seems from the facts stated in the letter that Sister Augusta had made careful plans for her departure, but she had been in the work so long it was impossible for her to face the shame which would follow the breaking of her sacred vows.

Late yesterday afternoon a telegram was received stating that she had arrived in Springfield, and since that time the hall has been a place of sadness. All the sisters feel that a great disgrace has been brought upon the order, and they mourn for Sister Augusta as for one dead.

STRONGEST NATION NEXT TO RUSSIA

ESTIMATES ON POPULATION OF UNITED STATES.

Figures Reach From 74,000,000 to 77,000,000—Russia the Only Civilized Country In the World That Out-ranks Us—McKinley Will Recommend Retirement of Gen. Merritt.

Washington, Jan. 6.—What is the population of the United States at the end of the century? Next June something like 50,000 enumerators will be set at work by the census bureau to reach an authoritative answer to this question. Meanwhile an interesting discussion has been started by an estimate of the total population, reckoning for June next, made by Census Director Merriam in the North American Review. Mr. Merriam thinks the total will not be greater than 74,000,000.

The general assumption has already been made that we were already a nation of 75,000,000 people, and Director Merriam's estimate is therefore rather disappointing. He is a good ways below the estimate of Mulhall, the English statistician, who thinks the United States census of this year will show 77,300,000. Between Director Merriam's highest figure and Mulhall's estimate there is a discrepancy of more than 3,000,000.

It is worth while to note that at the end of the nineteenth century the United States has a population about 150 times greater than at the beginning of the century, and that this is now the most populous nation under a strong sovereign, modern government, with the single exception of Russia. The population of the United Kingdom, England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, is about 40,000,000; of Germany 54,000,000; of France 40,000,000; of Russia (both Europe and Asia) 130,000,000; of Japan 45,000,000; of Italy, 33,000,000 and of Austro-Hungary, 43,000,000.

May Retire Gen. Merritt.

President McKinley will soon recommend to congress the retirement of Major General Wesley Merritt as lieutenant general, and it is believed congress will promptly pass the necessary act of authority. General Merritt's retirement will come in the natural course of events June 16 this year. But he is willing to retire at any time if the rank of lieutenant general be revived for him, as was done in the case of General Schofield.

Death of Drummond.

Dr. William A. Hammond, famous as a brain specialist and former surgeon general of the army of the United States, died at his home in this city last night. He was seventy-two years old and had for some time put aside the greater part of his enormous and highly lucrative practice. Dr. Hammond will probably be longest remembered for his services in the army and for his prolonged and finally victorious fight for reinstatement after he had been dismissed from the army by a court-martial at the instigation of Secretary of War Stanton.

GAGE IS WORKING ON HIS REPORT

Information Congress has Asked For Will Be Ready For Them Monday.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Secretary Gage will not have his reply to congress ready for delivery next Monday notwithstanding that he has had a force of typewriters at work since yesterday morning. The secretary's personal communication will not be long, but the letters and papers that are to accompany it in obedience to the specifications of the Sulzer and Allen resolutions to make a parcel of sufficient bulk to require the services of an express wagon to transport it to the capitol. It is the purpose of the secretary according to an official of the treasury department who is engaged in arranging the mass of correspondence that will be used in the communication, to "simply overwhelm his detractors." He will go back twenty years to prove that he has acted just as preceding secretaries of the treasury have acted in, dealing with depository banks.

COMMANCHE IS CAPTURED

Filipino Stronghold on Mt. Arayat Taken By Capt. Leonhouser.

PLACE IS BURNED UP

Three American Prisoners In Hands of Rebels Are Shot And Mutilated.

Gilmore and His Associates Rescued

From the Filipinos—Gen. Otis Cables Good News—Work of the Military Officers Complimented—Soldiers of the Thirty-Ninth Infantry Make a Brilliant Reconnaissance—Report that Aguinaldo's Followers Have Murdered American Captives.

Manila, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]—Advices from Magalang, province of Pampanga, report that Capt. Leonhouser with three companies of the Twenty-fifth, captured the insurgent stronghold of Commanche, on Mount Arayat yesterday.

Three Americans were wounded, the enemy's loss is unknown.

Three members of the Ninth and two of the Twelfth Infantry whom the rebels held prisoners, were shot and horribly mutilated. Three are dead, the other two are recovering. Leonhouser set fire to the rebel barracks and the town. Her shaft was broken.

Manila, Jan. 6.—[Special Cablegram]

—The British steamer Victoria, used as a transport by the United States, arrived today in tow eighty-one days from San Francisco. Her shaft was broken.

ALL PRISONERS ARE RELEASED

Lieut. Gilmore and His Associates Rescued From the Rebels

Washington, Jan. 6.—The officials of the navy and war departments are jubilant over the news from Manila, the former because of the rescue of Lieut. Gilmore and his associates, and the latter because of the excellent work of Col. Hare of the Twenty-third infantry and Lieut. Col. Howze of the Thirty-fourth infantry. Secretary Root created enthusiasm at the cabinet meeting by reading Gen. Otis' report of the rescue. This report was as follows: "Manila, Jan. 5.—Cols. Hare and Howze just arrived at Vigan, north-west Luzon, with all American prisoners. Their successful pursuit a remarkable achievement. Cens. Schwan and Wheaton now with separate columns in Cavite province. Affairs in Luzon, north of Manila, greatly improved.

"OTIS."

Col. Miller, quartermaster-general at Manila, cabled that the freight steamer Victoria, missing since her departure from San Francisco Oct. 16, left Guam for Manila Dec. 25 with a broken shaft and in tow of the collier Brutus.

Gen. Otis reports that the troopship Logan and the animal transport Wyfield have arrived safely at Manila.

Admiral Watson reports that "on Dec. 21 Wentzbaugh, commanding the Albany (a little gunboat) hoisted the flag on Sibutu island and the chief data provided and raised the pole. Natives and north Borneo authorities pleased." The island lies at the southwestern angle of the boundary line of the quadrangle enclosing the Philippine group. It lies very near the coast of Borneo, commanding the principal channel between that island and the Philippines.

FIGHT A WAY THROUGH THE FOE.

Soldiers of the Thirty-Ninth Infantry in a Brilliant Reconnaissance.

Manila, Jan. 6.—A brilliant reconnaissance was made Friday by Capt. Long and fifteen men of the Thirty-ninth infantry from Buaug to Camrona, to drive 200 insurgents from their heavy intrenchments. Twenty-five of the enemy were killed. One force was surrounded for hours, but there were no casualties among the Americans.

More than 100 artillery shells sent by gunboat on Laguna de Bay were tampered with en route from Manila. The fuses had been cut so that the projectile would explode on contact. This was evidently an attempt to destroy a launch or the gunboat when the shells were being handled. Suspicion points to spies in our service.

MUCH BUILDING DURING YEAR 1899

SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS WAS INVESTED.

Both in the Business and Residence Portions of the City—Year 1900 Promises to Break All Records Here—Plans Drawn For Many Handsome Homes.

During the year 1899 many improvements of a costly nature were brought about in the city of Janesville both in the residence and business portion. In all the wards new dwellings were erected. In the Third ward the most costly of these were built. In the business portion of the city the most noticeable improvement was the remodeling of the Thomas Lappin block which was purchased from the Lappin estate, corner Milwaukee and Main streets, by Michael and Dennis Hayes. The cost of the remodeling alone was in the neighborhood of $30,000.

A new and model Rock county jail was erected at a cost of $25,000.

A costly addition has been added to the Y. M. C. A. building.

The Wilcox block at the corner of River and Dodge streets has been a noticeable improvement in that section of the city.

In the manufacturing section the erection of the Jeffris planing mill on North River street has given that section of the city a more bustling appearance.

The remodeling of the two story Richardson block, corner of Pease Court and North Main street, for the Isabel Manufacturing company has added much life to the manufacturing section of Janesville.

A new and model grain elevator has been built at the corner of North Main street and Fourth avenue.

For the year 1900 local contractors predict more building in Janesville than has taken place in years. Howe Bros. now have in course of erection a brick addition to their local cotton mills located on Franklin, River and Wall streets.

On South Franklin street near the Jackson street bridge, the erection of a large leaf tobacco warehouse is being pushed by a large force of men. This warehouse is being built by David K. Jeffris, Fred Jeffris and W. S. Jeffris and will be occupied by an eastern firm.

The erection of a new government building in this city this year is predicted. Plans for several handsome and costly homes have been placed in the hands of local contractors who will commence work with the opening of spring.

POSTAL'S MESSENGER SERVICE

Such a System May Soon Be Established in Janesville

G. C. Zachow, local manager of the Postal Telegraph company, is of the opinion that Janesville may soon have a complete system of telegraph messenger call boxes. Such a system has recently been placed in Oshkosh and Madison. The Chicago offices have asked Manager Zachow about the establishing of such a system in Janesville.

Such a service would include the manufacturing district, the hotels, banks and principal business concerns.

Business men would then not need to telephone for a messenger boy—they could push a button and the Postal would do the rest without extra expense.

GAVE THEIR CLOSING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Have Had Excellent Classes Here

At Concordia hall last evening Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams gave the closing party to their dancing school classes. From 7 to 9 o'clock the children's class enjoyed a masquerade ball, there being forty little maskers and fully twice as many spectators. Some of the costumes were most novel. At 8:20 the grand march took place. From 9 to 12 o'clock there was a social dance for adults. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have accomplished excellent work in this city, and they have good reason to feel proud of their work.

NEW MODEL BICYCLES ARRIVE

Several of the Local Dealers Have on Hand 1900 Model Wheels.

Several of the local bicycle dealers have received their 1900 models of wheels. The cost of a good bike will be around the $40 mark.

There will be few appreciable changes in the models and construction of next year's bicycles. With most manufacturers there is a tendency toward lighter machines, while with many the coaster brake—a third wheel—will be a feature. Many of the members comprising the American Bicycle company or the "Cycle trust," will give more attention to the chainless bicycle than to the chain driven wheel. They believe that the experimental stage of the chainless wheel has been passed and that before the close of another year it will have superseded the chain machine in popularity.

ATTORNEY JEFFRIS

FREES HIS CLIENT

JUDGE DUNWIDDIE HEARD THE ACTION.

Celebrated Shooting Case Ended at Monroe Last Night—Jury Was Out Four and One-Half Hours—Arguments Lasted Five Hours—Caused Much Interest.

After being out four and one-half hours, the jury in the case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Craig, brought in a verdict of not guilty at Monroe, at 11:45 o'clock last evening. Judge B. F. Dunwiddie of this city, heard the action, and Attorney M. G. Jeffris of Janesville, was one of the defendant's attorneys.

After five hours of argument, the case went to the jury shortly before 7 o'clock last evening. Judge Dunwiddie's charge to the jury was brief, and the court simply defined the law with respect to self defense. Four forms of verdicts were given the jury.

The case of the defense was conducted without new developments, and a portion of its evidence bearing on conversations was not admitted. The attorneys were given two and one-half hours a side. Colin W. Wright opened for the state and was followed by attorneys Clawson, Douglas and Jeffris for the defendant, Burr W. Jones closing the argument for the state.

Craig was tried on the charge of shooting Dr. Clark, with intent to kill him. The trial lasted all week.

The occasion was one of the series of the People's Lecture Course and the Mozart Symphony club of New York was the entertainer. An immense audience was present and was delighted with the program. The fifth attraction on the course will be a lecture by the Rev. William A. Quale, a speaker of national reputation, who comes on Tuesday evening, February 20th.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only reports what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to postoffice, Kodak agents.

Things That Affect Memory.

Scientists have discovered that the memory is stronger in summer than in winter. Among the worst foes of the memory are too much food, too much physical exercise, and, strangely enough, too much education.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Medicine.

Manager Martin of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to Postoffice. Kodak Agents.

GIVE TWO SERIES OF SERMONS

Rev. A. C. Kempton Announces an Outline of His Work

Rev. A. C. Kempton of the Baptist church announces that he will begin two series of sermons on Jan. 7. The morning series is entitled "In the Footsteps of Jesus," while the evening series is entitled "If Jesus Were in My Place." Rev. Mr. Kempton's announcements are as follows:

It was my privilege two years ago to tread those "holy fields" made sacred by our Saviour's feet, and in these sermons I shall endeavor to bring the Holy Land to Janesville so that all can see it as it is today. Unnumbered thousands will begin the study of Christ's life with the New Year; but to understand Jesus you must understand the Holy Land. These sermons will be delivered each Sunday at 10:30 a. m., beginning January 7th.

1. Immanuel's Land.
2. Echoes from Jeppa.
3. Bethlehem.
4. Nazareth.
5. The River Jordan.
6. The Mount of Temptation.
7. Christ in the Temple.
8. Bethesda, House of Mercy.
9. Jacob's Well Today.
10. Galilee, Blue Galilee.
11. Journeying Toward Jerusalem.

Every man has asked himself the question, "What would Jesus do if He were in my place?" People who make no pretensions to be Christians have often wondered about this. Christians are asking themselves more and more frequently, "What would Jesus do?" In these sermons I shall endeavor in plain, everyday language to practically consider these questions which are of interest to all. These sermons will be delivered each Sunday at 7:00 p. m., beginning January 14th.

1. If Jesus were in my place what would He do this New Year?
2. If Jesus were in my place of work.
3. If Jesus were in my place at home.
4. If Jesus were in my place would He join a church?
5. If Jesus were in my place what friendship would He form?
6. If Jesus were in my place how would He treat my enemies?
7. If Jesus were in my place how would He spend his time?
8. If Jesus were in my place as a man among men?

DREAMS THAT CAME TRUE.

Oliver
Harper Tells
Of Some Strange and Unexplained Happenings.

Did you ever have a dream that "came true"? There is probably no person of average intelligence who cannot call to mind some instance of having had a dream that was a revelation or presage of something that afterward came to pass.

From earliest history dreams have been regarded as more or less prophetic visions, and many have tried to interpret them for general guidance, fixing some significance to each dream usually something relating to love or money, the two prime factors in humanity.

In such interpretations I have no faith, but that some dreams are prophetic visions or that the dreamer becomes partially clairvoyant I am positive, and my opinions are based upon the experiences of others as well as my own.

What sleep is, what dreams are and what occult forces obtain temporary control of the mind during sleep many scientists have endeavored to explain, but none has yet done so. For my own part, I think that dreams that mean something come to all persons at times and that then the dreamer is partially clairvoyant, but owing to circumstances few take note of them, partly because the dreamer in his or her waking hours may be so occupied with other things that they are forgotten in the press of work or worry or pleasure until perhaps when it is too late to have profited by the warning or until it has "come true."

Whether dreams, good or bad, are the result of late suppers or indigestion, intense fatigue or the result of partial mental action or a diseased condition of the body or brain or are but the mechanical rehearsal of the impressions made on the mind during the day I cannot pretend to say, nor do I care to go into that question at all.

All I wish to do is to cite a few instances of dreams and their fulfillment, some of them almost immediate and some years after, and ask some of those great philosophers who are always discovering a cause for every effect to explain them.

Among some of the most curious phenomena is that on many occasions I have dreamed of seeing places where there was some peculiarity that would fix the dream in my mind permanently, and years later I have come upon just such a place to the minutest details.

I had never seen these places nor even pictures of them, and yet I had actually seen them with my inner eyes or by some means beyond my own power of comprehension.

I saw one night in a dream a great, double iron gate, with gilded eagle and initials upon it, and dreamed that I entered it in a carriage. The gate was flanked on each side by stone walls. It was at least four years after that that I drove through that very gate to go to Camden House, Chislehurst, to visit the ex-empress Eugenie, and I knew the gate instantly for the one I had seen in my dream.

On that same night I had dreamed of being in a flatboat with many people struggling to get through a shallow, rocky river between two rugged, rusty looking mountains, and I suddenly recognized the place I had seen in my dream while in a boat going through a very shallow part of the Danube river at a place called the Iron Gates. I had seen these two places in dreams, and when I did see them in reality I knew them for the fulfillment of my dream. I had not then imagined that I should ever arise from a bed of sickness, much less travel in foreign countries.

There is always a tantalizing incompleteness about my dreams that does not give me insight enough to draw a moral or avoid a danger, while I yet feel that it was meant for something. I always feel that I am on the very first point of seeing into futurity and always falling short of it, yet by taking note of the dreams that come to me I can dimly understand something of the symbolic meaning of some of those that come most often.

If I have a dream wherein I have a sense of defeat in everything and I start away traveling downward, I know very well that some of my children of the brain are coming back to me rejected by some cruel publisher, and that way I manage to brace myself up so that by the time the M.S. is home I receive it like a prodigal and load it with postage stamps and start it on another journey. If, on the contrary, I dream of climbing easily and feel elated in my dream, a welcome check usually greets me smilingly in my morning mail.

As a test I have often answered letters before I received them and can tell any important and often unimportant letter that is on the way, describing the paper, writing, blots and color of ink used, but I never have been able to really read the letter or tell the signature. I only have a sense of it without an exact knowledge.

I do not believe that anything could happen to any one I loved that the pre-science of my own heart would not make it known to me in some way, and as awake my mind is an intensely practical, everyday sort of mind it is only when I am asleep that this power has away, and I believe all others have it equally developed if they only gave thought to it.

"I WAS WANDERING THROUGH A STRANGE FOREST."

I had a dear friend whom I loved as if she had really been my mother and with whom I had passed at least three days in every week for two years. She was sick, but not dangerously so, and owing to the heat she was taken to Newport. I heard from her often and thought her better, when one night I dreamed her house was suddenly undermined and crumbled down. Her daughter stood by me and my husband and several men went in the ruins and brought her out in a yellow box, coming down the steps of her house, which remained solid. Three days later she was brought back from Newport dead, and her coffin, in a yellowish box, was brought down the steps in the same way I had seen it, even to a white rose that fell to the ground in the dream and in reality. I have the rose yet.

I had a beautiful little sister-in-law whom I loved as few love own sisters. She was so bright and gifted and lovable that I always yearned over her, for somehow I always felt that death lurked behind the violet of her eyes, yet her health was perfect. I was in Constantinople, and one night I dreamed that I was back home in blessed California and that all my family was gathered to go to a picnic, when my brother came to me and said, "If you will give me the money I will get the tickets."

We were on a railroad platform. I looked around for Lila and could not see her and said: "Where is Lila? She is not here, and I shall not start without her. What would a picnic be without her?" My brother turned and looked at me, saying: "It is useless trying to hide it from you. Lila will never be with us again." Almost at that very hour she had died, and I half a world away had been told of it. I did not get the letter with the news for six weeks after, but I knew she was dead.

But my dreams are not always tragic. Last summer I prepared to go up to Albany on the day boat, but I had such a funny dream the night before that I woke up laughing. I thought I was in a prehistoric phase of this world and wandering through strange forests of giant ferns and seeing great beasts wallowing along, and there were giants wandering about and monkeys going through trees, and, in short, a prehistoric scene of horror. We, my husband and myself, reached the Albany boat and at the last minute discovered that our tickets were lying at home on the table.

I suggested that we change our program and since we had started for Albany we might take the Rockaway boat and go down there, as we had never been. We did so, and when we got there concluded to see all the sights and went into a big museum, and there I found my prehistoric scene—animals, hairy elephant, monkeys, and all the other I know not what, but this had two heads and was called Pato-guan and looked like a genuine mummy.

I have often wished for a little clearer vision or else none at all, for a glimpse as fleeting as the flash of lightning into something that may prove of almost vital interest is too little or too much.

OLIVER HARPER.

America Stands Alone.

Washington, Jan. 6.—No overtures have been made to this government by the men who met at Brussels Thursday and determined to appeal to neutral nations to end the South African war. The United States will not become a party to any arrangement between nations to offer to mediate between Great Britain and the Transvaal. This policy was decided on before the war commenced, and will be adhered to. The only way in which the United States may be brought into an attempt to bring hostilities to a close will be through a request from both belligerents that this government tender its good offices to end the war.

Every farmer knows that to kill weeds he must go to the roots. To cut the weed off on the surface, means that the weed is still left to grow. It's just that way with boils, ulcers, eruptions, pimples and similar diseases of the flesh. To cure them you must go to the roots, down into the blood. Mere surface treatment never gets rid of the disease. It will come back at the first opportunity.

It is its wonderful power in the purification of the blood that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery owes many of its triumphs of healing. It cleanses the blood thoroughly, eliminating all the refuse matter and clears out the waste and poisonous particles which clog the body and foul the flesh. It eradicates from the blood the conditions which make disease possible. The result is that diseases die out like fires that are unaided.

There is no medicine for the blood which is "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery." Accept no substitute.

"I feel it my duty to write to you of the wonderful curative powers of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Geo. S. Henderson, Esq., of Denard, La. Co., Florida. "I had a bad bruise on my right ear and my blood was badly out of order. I tried local doctors but with no good results. Finally, I wrote you the particulars in my case, and you advised your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I began to take. From the first bottle I began to feel better, and when I had taken eight bottles the sore was healed up. I wish you success."

A VOICE FROM ARKANSAS

Chicago Times-Herald—Above the stentorian clamor of Senator J. K. Jones is heard a clear strong voice calling the democracy of Arkansas back to Jefferson and Tilden.

It is the voice of Major W. H. Haynes, "Nestor of Arkansas Democracy." He is before the only voice in Arkansas has been the "clamor" of J. K. Jones. All other voices have been drowned in his bellowings through the megaphone of disaster. In fact, the voice of Arkansas has been the voice of Jones.

But while the voice of Jones was resting itself and waiting for more breath the Little Rock statesman, who learned his faith "from the lips of Old Hickory himself," sends forth a note of warning to the democrats of the nation against the "political Sancho Panzas" and thoughtless followers of a sentimental leadership who are endeavoring to engraft their pernicious policy upon a party, a policy which Major Haynes declares "is more dangerous to the party's success than anything undertaken since Seymour's defeat."

In these ringing words he sounds the alarm against the anti-expansionists in his party.

If the immortal author of the Declaration of Independence were alive he would be astonished that any of his countrymen could be in the way of America's progress or opposed to the advantages surely hers with the Nicaragua Canal and Manila under our flag. The misadventure of some of our latter-day leaders who are opposing expansion is so confounding, and so antagonistic to the well established democratic doctrine that it is certainly troubling to know that many of the south's best statesmen are conspicuously advocating the practical needs of a people essentially enterprising and progressive, who will enjoy the full fruition of industrial and agricultural prosperity if a majority of their countrymen shall be true to democracy and expansion, and shall direct to the rear the "blind stagger" politicians who would block the way to the immense possibilities awaiting American domination of the Pacific.

No republican expansionist will make a stronger appeal than this for the American policy of Jefferson and McKinley. The State of Arkansas came into the Union as a part of the famous Louisiana purchase made by President Jefferson from France in 1803 and for which he paid $15,000,000. So long as Arkansas had no other voice than the voice of Senator J. K. Jones the people were inclined to doubt the wisdom of the great Father of Expansion in including Arkansas in his $15,000,000 purchase. It is true that the voice of Jones was not annexed by Jefferson. The great annexationist little dreamed that Arkansas would be represented in Congress by eight men who would oppose the policy of Jefferson in 1900.

It is good to hear an expansion voice from the State of Jones. There is hope for Arkansas yet. It is merely on the calamity side track, waiting for the lightning expansion express to go by, when it will be switched onto the main track unless Jones is allowed to tamper with the semaphore.

Scene I—[Actual Occurrence]—Milwaukee street. Three intoxicated men stagger along arm in arm. "—!" says one of the men with drunken emphasis. The lady in front of them quickens her pace, while the woman behind them walks slower. The two ladies approaching take opposite edges of the sidewalk and get by with an effort. Scene II—A repetition of the same case. Moral—We do not need policemen. No woman should expect to come down town unless she can stand foul language and dodge drunks.

Harry Nye, of Chicago, was making love to a widow. At the same time Harry was making counterfeit money—doing it so well that no one knew his coin was queer. The widow, however, was so to speak, "wise on this proposition," and when she learned that Harry was passing counterfeit love on her, she told the police and Harry was locked up. Moral—You may fool the people with counterfeit money, but you can't shove counterfeit love on a widow.

"Janesville is one of the quietest and most orderly cities in the country," says our local contemporary. Of course it is—and it was in 1892, too, when Chief Hogan, who was sheriff at that time, declared that a better police system was needed. What's the use of beating about the bush? A stone wall is a very unpleasant thing to butt your head against, and the result is always the same—the butter gets buttered.

As a swindling proposition, the American Woolen Mills company recently suppressed by the Chicago police, appears to be "all wool and a yard wide," but "it won't wash."

Constant Reader—Neither the proprietors of the Hotel Myers or the People's Drug Company draw a salary from the city in payment for their work of hunting up policemen. We would therefore suggest that you put them to a little trouble as possible, and telephone them only in cases of absolute necessity.

William Waldorf Astor, ex American and fawning British ass, has subscribed $25,000 to equip a battery for service in the Transvaal. Of course the government will accept Willie's aid, but people will laugh at him just the same.

So the Chinese whipped the French at Wangehuan! As Mr. Dooley says: "Glory be! Divil takes them both!"

Great Britain should bear in mind the fact that while she may "rule the sea" she doesn't own it.

However, all Quays, so to speak, are barred. Otherwise they would not be quays.

America Not Negotiating.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Nothing is known here officially of negotiations to secure an arrangement between nations for the protection of neutral trade with neutral ports in South Africa. The United States government, it is asserted, will act alone in its efforts to secure assurances from Great Britain that American goods not contraband of war, carried from United States ports to neutral ports in South Africa, in neutral bottoms, shall not be molested by British war ships. The concern of the American government is solely in the incident of the seizure of American flour, and it does not desire any foreign help. It is said, to protect its trade interests with South Africa.

Four Earn to Death.

New York, Jan. 6.—The five-story brick tenement at 305 East Ninety-second street was gutted by fire early this morning. A number of the tenants were rescued by the firemen by means of ladders, scaling ladders, and ropes. Two women on the fourth floor were burned to death, or suffocated, as were two children on the fifth floor. Three firemen were overcome by smoke, but were rescued by their brother firemen. The building was wrecked.

Boom in German Ship Building.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Jan. 6.—The Zeitung says that the North German Lloyd needs 80,000,000 marks to pay for vessels ordered. This means the doubling of the company's capital stock. The company is ambitious to begin the next century with the greatest line of steamers in the world and to outstrip its only rival, the Hamburg company.

Embezzling Teller Sentenced.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 6.—Joel G. Tyler, late teller of the Safety National bank of Fitchburg, was sentenced in the United States court to serve five years in Worcester jail for embezzling the funds of the bank.

No Ally for Germany.

Cologne, Jan. 6.—The Berlin correspondent of the Magdeburg Zeitung, who has access to semi-official information, repudiates the charge made by the newspapers that the government is acting in a weak-kneed manner in the present difficulty with Great Britain. The correspondent adds: "Those who advocate sharp action ignore the fact that Germany, in entering into a conflict with Great Britain, would stand alone, and that France is eagerly awaiting a more serious Anglo-German dispute."

Hint at Anti-British Coalition.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The seizure of the Bundesrath remains the dominant topic of the German press. Influential papers like the Berliner Tageblatt, Cologne Volks Zeitung, Berliner Neueste Nachrichten, Hamburger Correspondenz and the semi-official Berliner Post strongly hint at the possibility of Germany's forming an anti-British coalition with Russia and France.

The World's Silver Product.

This country holds second place among the nations as a silver producer, her output of the white metal last year being valued at $23,118,400. Mexico surpasses her as a silver producer, her product last year being worth at current prices $33,475,400. Taking the United States and Mexico together, they produce 67 per cent of the world's product of the argentiferous metal.

"Hell's Half Acre" in Yellowstone.

"Hell's Half Acre" is a name applied to one of the geyser basins of Yellowstone park. Its area is easily five acres in extent and from it bubbles about forty hot sulphur springs. All around these springs the soil is uncomfortably warm and gives birth to the idea that the internal fires of the earth are close to the surface.

Always Face the Engine.

From the Pittsburgh Bulletin: In his prime the late Mr. John Cook, the great tourist agent, was a man of iron frame. But when years of railway traveling, which averaged annually some 40,000 miles, produced certain alarming symptoms, he made a discovery that may be worth giving to the public. He found that the threatened trouble, something spinal, disappeared when he no longer sat with his back to the engine. He always thereafter faced it, and that the principle is sound will be borne out by others whom he advised to do the same. All who are called upon to do much railway traveling will be wise to sit "facing the horses."

JET AND BLACK.

Both Will Be Popular During the Coming Season.

While in London I visited some of the famous "shops," as they call them, and I was struck by the rather somber appearance they presented. Black seems to be the keynote in gowns of all descriptions. Perhaps this is due in a measure to the court mourning. The Princess of Wales, however, has set the fashion of having very elaborate mourning attire, so that were it not for the craze upon it one might think some of the gowns for festive occasions.

After all, this is as it should be. There is no reason why a woman's mourning gowns should not be fashionably made. Mourning garb is depressing enough at the best. But, aside from the mourning garb, we must expect to see a great deal of black worn this season. So many rich and new black fabrics are offered that one finds choice difficult. There are the silk warp goods, endorn, henrietta, melrose and drap d'ete, drap d'alma and crape cloths and bluster and other crepons. All these may be worn for mourning or for any occasion not especially festive.

Black silks are almost covered with jet, embroidery picked out with jet and with jetted passementerie. One gown for a swell dinner was of black armure silk thickly sewed with jet, so that altogether it weighed nearly 40 pounds. Black velvet gowns for grand occasions and for the street will be among the handiest of all the winter costumes.

For mourning attire there are some very handsome wraps and capes; also empire coats and other shapes, such as tight jackets and blouse effects. Some of these are of all wool goods, like the wool drap d'alma and cachemire de l'inde. Broadcloth and venetian, melton and boucle will also be worn later in the season. All but the last two will be trimmed with crape. The melton and boucle will have black castle brand stitched on, and where buttons are required they will be of plain black horn. Everything in shape of wrap or jacket will have high collars, higher than ever, if possible. There is a new mantle where the body is blouse shaped and belted, with a flat revers collar and a high medall collar. The sleeves are cut like crapes and joined. The top is sewed into the arm size, and the sleeve thus formed is left to fall in heavy folds.

For deep mourning these are quite or nearly covered with crape. Other sleeves are made very snug, almost as tight as they used to be some ten years ago, when it was said that a woman had to get up on a stepladder to get them on. The way she did it was to fall down.

The suits for what are generally called "growing girls" are very neat and pretty this season. I was looking at some cravatette suits recently. One had four clusters of soutache on the skirt, four rows in each. They were all massed above the knees. The jacket was double breasted, but fastened with files. It was scalloped and had several rows of soutache. Jaunty pockets and revers and coat collar finished it. The color was dark brown. Another pretty suit for a girl of 16 had the skirt of very dark blue serge made entirely plain. The jacket was of tan melton, double breasted and elegantly braided. A glance at the illustration will show how both of these looked.

For young girls there are many pretty felt hats, stitched round and round the crowns, made like Tam O'Shanter's. A quill and a band are considered the right trimming for these. Others there are with more of the sailor shape, with birds, quills, plumes or rosettes of velvet or of felt as garniture. For dress occasions velvet hats of dark color with light satin linings are handsome. These are trimmed with loops and bows of alternate velvet and satin.

Flaids will be unusually prominent for girls this season, but for dresses only. All coats and cloaks are of mixtures or solid color in smooth faced, or boucle. The woolly effects in outer garments will be carried out to a greater extent than ever before. There are some self colored camel's hairs that are as thick as fur, with long, silky hair. These will make beautiful cloaks for small children in the lighter shades of gray. HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Weather Talk.

When men cannot get their brains together on other subjects, they fall into friendly discussion of the weather. In the last eight or ten years I have talked weather with 20,000 clever fellows, and the unanimous verdict is that the seasons are changing, that Christmas is greener than it used to be, and that winter lingers scandalously long in the lap of spring; that we have no cold weather until January; and no autumn until December; that blizzards come in April which used to come in February; that roses which used to bloom in May now bud in June; that navigation in the Hudson closes later every year; that sleighing that used to be excellent in November is now poor in December and January; that skating is better in the rinks than on lakes and ponds; that the groundhog sees his shadow later by several weeks than he saw it ten years ago.—New York Press.

Oldest Book in the World.

Tardy justice is at length to be done to another of the many martyrs of science in the person of Prisse d'Avennes, the discoverer of the famous maxims of Ptolemy Hotep, which has been claimed as the oldest book in the world. Prisse d'Avennes was a munificent donor in his time to the museums of Paris, and most patriotically refused all offers from other nations to work for them as an archaeologist when the trade of exploring was more highly paid and less crowded than it is today. He died in poverty at the age of 72, and his grateful country has now named a street in Paris after him and proposes to place his bust in the Egyptian museum of the Louvre.—Fall Mail Gazette.

France Is Extravagant.

Paul Leroy-Beaulieu comments on the French budget for 1900 with a tone of alarm. If the future of French finance consists, he says, in spending each year 35,000,000 francs more than in the preceding year French prosperity is bound to succumb. All nations, it is said, are constantly doing the same thing—increasing expenditure. But whatever other nations do, France, Mr. Leroy-Beaulieu argues, cannot afford it. Her budget is 800,000,000 francs more than England's though England has 2,000,000 more of population and is probably 15 to 20 per cent richer.

AMERICAN HOUSE BOARDERS ROBBED

WELL KNOWN GERMAN MAN ACCUSED OF BEING THIEF.

Police Think That the Alleged Robber Has Left For Racine Where He Has a Wife—Worked At Janesville Machine Works—Property Is Valued at $125.

Charles E. Herrmann, landlord of the American house, 63 East Milwaukee street, is now mourning the loss of a $32 board bill as well as $100 worth of personal property belonging to three of his boarders. A missing German boarder who suddenly left town yesterday is accused of the crime.

From Kasper Allgren, the alleged thief, stole a gold watch and two gold rings. He also took two pair of shoes. From William Albrecht was stolen an overcoat and considerable clothing. From the room of Hans Olson was taken a hat, two grips and much underwear and clothing.

The robbery took place in the day time, the accused remaining in his room on the pretense of being ill. The German whom the police are now seeking, came to the American House two weeks ago, and after engaging board, went to work as a laborer at the Janesville Machine Works.

Last summer he was in Janesville for several days. It is said that he has a wife and child at Racine. The Racine police have been notified.

THIEVES STEAL BOAT TRIMMINGS

FOUR RIVER LAUNCHES ARE BADLY MUTILATED.

Hard Hunt After An Officer But Finally One Is Located—No Arrest As Yet Made—Brass Gauges and Whistles Wrenched From the Boats and Probably Sold.

The daily hunt for a policeman was on again yesterday afternoon.

The owners of the steam and naphtha launches Idlewyle, Bower City, Hattie and Lorna were informed yesterday that thieves had relieved their pleasure crafts of all brass trimmings.

After diligent search for an officer one was finally located, and an effort is now being made to bring about the arrest of the guilty parties. The four water crafts are owned by private parties who find much pleasure each summer in plying between this city and up-river resorts. With the coming on of cold weather last fall the three boats were stored in a shed in the rear of A. C. Kent's factory on North Main street.

A. C. Kent placed his boat, "The Hattie," in a house by itself located thirty feet from where the Lorna, Idlewyle and Bower City were stored. Now it appears that thieves have made a general overhauling of all four boats and have relieved each and every one of them of every particle of brass that could be removed without tearing all the machinery apart.

The object of the thieves was undoubtedly to dispose of the brass to junk dealers. None of the stolen property had been recovered up to a late hour this afternoon. W. E. Evenson made a close inspection of the boats this noon and found that the thieves even removed the brass whistles and steam gauges.

They also helped themselves to oar locks, bolts and every brass trimming that could be removed. The theft on the four boats will amount to a 'goodly sum.

The "Lorna" is owned by George M. McKee, R. J. Whitton, W. E. Evenson, Mayor V. P. Richardson and Richard Valentine.

The "Bower City" is the property of Dr. E. H. Dudley.

Those interested in the "Idlewyle" are T. O. Howe, Charles Sanborn, H. D. Murdock and Fred Howe.

A. C. Kent is the owner of the "Hattie."

FIRST TRAIN INTO TOWN

Philo Loudon Speaks of Happenings Fifty Years Ago Today

Said Philo Loudon today: "It was either fifty years ago today or forty-nine years that the first railroad train pulled into Janesville. I remember it just as well as if it was yesterday. Eight seers drove in from many miles around and the town was filled with people. Many came as far as Milwaukee. The railroad was then known as the Milwaukee & Mississippi road. It started from Milwaukee and came to Janesville via Whitewater. Afterwards it became the Milwaukee road. When the train pulled into Janesville it came to halt near the Hanson Furniture company factory for the depot was then located near there. Speeches were made and a banquet followed at the Stevens House, located where the Armory now stands. I played in the band that day."

EDGERTON BANK CASE NEXT WEEK

JUDGE DICK WILL PRESIDE DURING HEARING.

Stockholders Are Not Satisfied With Thirty Cents On the Dollars—Say That They Have More Coming—Prominent Attorneys Will Fight Action—Much Money Involved.

After several months of rest the much hushed case of C. M. Gager et al. vs. the Bank of Edgerton, is to be revived before the circuit court of Rock county next week. Indications are that the action will be heard next Monday before Judge Dick, who comes here from Dane county for the purpose of hearing arguments in this special case.

The action promises to be a hard fought one, and is brought by the numerous depositors for money they allege is due them from the stockholders and directors of the Bank of Edgerton before its failure. The stockholders and directors paid about thirty cents on the dollar, but it now appears that the many depositors are clamoring for money cash, claiming that of the remaining seventy cents they should receive a goodly portion at least.

Interested attorneys from Madison, Milwaukee, Edgerton and Janesville will be on hand Monday. Among the outside interested attorneys are Robert M. La Follette and John M. Olin of Madison.

A local attorney in speaking of the celebrated case says that in his opinion the attorneys' fees on both sides will figure near $30,000 before the case is settled.

MANY ASK REPEAL OF REVENUE STAMPS

PETITIONS BEING SIGNED IN JANESVILLE.

Many Druggists Say That the Cost Falls On Them—Maker Twenty Dollars a Week—Difference With Local Manufacturer—Forward Petitions to Congress.

A petition is now being freely signed in this city requesting that Congress repeal the revenue stamp law which is now in effect. This law requires stamps to be placed on all patent medicines and preparations the rate of revenue being about two and one-half cents on every dollar.

Local druggists allege that such a revenue stamp law injures their business as they are obliged to pay a higher wholesale rate for goods that they do not feel like charging a higher retail rate for. When the petitions now in circulation contains many signatures they will be forwarded to Congressman Cooper and Senator Spooner at Washington.

W. E. Evenson, manufacturer of Cuticream, in speaking of the stamp law said: "From revenue stamps the government gets several million dollars more than it does from its custom house duties. This stamp law should be repealed. Stamps that I am obliged to use will average me $20 a week which sum goes to the government."

Snakes Have No Fascinating Power.

Naturalists are not at all agreed upon the point as to whether snakes are able to fascinate their prey. Certainly they do not possess the power to the extent that popular belief would have it. Stories of the weird and mystic influence of a serpent's eye fall flat in the face of scientific accuracy. What can be said of snakes, however, is that their very appearances paralyze the victim. It cannot move for fright, for its faculties are temporarily suspended. There is no fascination about this, however. It is fright and fright alone.

Bird That Guards Sheep.

The yakamik, a bird of the crane family, is used by the natives of Venezuela in place of a shepherd dog for guarding and herding their flocks. It is said that however far the yakamik may wander with the flocks it never fails to find its way home at night, driving before it all the creatures intrusted to its care.

Deathbed Scenes Seldom Terrible.

"I have seen thousands of persons die under all sorts of circumstances, and never yet have I seen one display the slightest fear of death." This remarkable statement was made by a physician who has practiced many years in Philadelphia and who has seen a great deal of hospital service. "It is a popular fallacy," he went on, "to imagine that a deathbed scene is ever terrible, other than as a parting between loved ones. The fear of the unknown is never present at the last."

NIGHT ATTACK REPULSED.

Boers Fail in Attempt to Drive British from Colesberg.

FIFTY KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Major Harvey of the Tenth Hussars Killed While Leading His Men in a Charge—Details of the Disastrous Sortie from Mafeking.

Rensburg, Jan. 4.—About daybreak, 1,000 Boers, supposed to be reinforcements, advanced on the left from Norval's Pont and came in contact with the pickets of the Inniskilling dragoons. Our men retired at first, but rallied and charged on the Boers, killing several and wounding many. The enemy fled to sheltered kopjes and opened a terrible rifle fire. The Berkshires and Suffolks repulsed, and there was a lengthy fusillade.

The horse artillery advanced with four guns and opened a deadly shell fire on the Boer riflemen, who retired. Then there was an artillery duel, the Boers using four guns and two Maxims.

The Tenth hussars then advanced, supported by a section of the horse artillery. The Boers on the right retired, leaving 200 men to hold the hill and protect their retreat.

Our artillery thoroughly searched the hill, while 150 mounted infantry dismounted and advanced under cover of the fire of the guns. They stormed and carried the hill, killing and wounding fifty, while nineteen were taken prisoners. We suffered no losses.

During the fighting the Inniskilling dragoons effected a surprise movement and charged on the retreating Boers. They killed seven and cut their way clear through.

Two British officers, who mistook the Boers for the New Zealanders, were captured.

The Boers appear to fear that their war was very gallant and determined, but it was frustrated by the British vigilance. The Boers gained and held a small kopje and commenced a turning movement. The British then opened a withering fire, which the burghers were unable to withstand, and they broke away. The Tenth hussars started in pursuit of the Boers. Major Harvey, commanding the hussars, was killed while leading his men, and Major Alexander, the second in command, was wounded.

Gen. French has been re-enforced with a battery of field artillery and a battalion of infantry.

"The Boers appear to fear that their retreat is being cut off. The road toward the bridges across the Orange river is commanded by three British guns."

London, Jan. 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Frere camp, dated Friday, Jan. 5, says:

"A strong cavalry reconnaissance under Lord Dundonald proceeded westward this morning toward Springfield, where firing is proceeding."

"There is a revival of the report that the Boers are short of provisions. Gen. Buller's army is eager for the advance."

"There has been firing today at Ladysmith and at Colenso."

Gen. Gatacre's report of the Molteno affair shows it was merely a determined attack on a police outpost, which was first announced from Pretoria, December 30. The Mafeking dispatch says: "There was a sortie today, with the view of capturing the Boer earthworks, but it was unsuccessful. The works were crowded with Boers awaiting the assault, and a hail of bullets forced the British to retire."

A MEASURE OF MERIT

Janesville Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of evidence lies in the merit. Convincing evidence in Janesville is not the testimony of strangers; But the endorsement of Janesville people. That's the kind of proof given here, The statement of a Janesville citizen

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says;

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near a town, into the Rock river. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's drug store and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

retire, killing and wounding a number.

The British storming party numbered eighty men, of which number twenty-one were killed and thirty-three wounded.

No Need of Foreign Gunners.

Amsterdam, Jan. 6.—At an interview Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic representative of the Transvaal, said the German steamer Bundesrath, which was seized a few days ago by the British, certainly did not carry contraband of war ordered by the Transvaal. If German artillerymen were on board the vessel, as alleged by the British, they must have been voyaging for their own purposes. He knew nothing about them.

The Transvaal, he added, did not need foreign gunners. The reports concerning the number of foreign artillerymen in the Boer army were grossly exaggerated. The only two employed were ex-non-commissioned officers of the Netherlands army.

Dr. Leyds said in conclusion that he believed the United States would possibly be induced to intervene in the South African war under the influence of public opinion in that country.

Free-States Tired of War.

London, Jan. 6.—The Daily Mail has the following dispatch from Rensburg, dated Jan. 4: "Some Free-States sent a petition to President Steyn asking to return home. He replied that they had crossed the border without permission, and as they had no money to pay the damage done, they must pay for it with their blood."

Tells of a Kafir Uprising.

Rotterdam, Jan. 6.—The Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant has a sensational story from Africa that the Kaffirs on the northeast frontier of the Transvaal, instigated by the British, have murdered Boer women and children.

To Report for Duty.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The Hamburg Lokai Blatt announced that the navy department had ordered all the marines now on furlough to report for duty at once at their respective stations in Kiel and Wilhelmshaven.

The report that Germany will send warships to South Africa or make any other naval demonstration is contradicted here, though it is officially stated that Germany is prepared for any emergency.

Chamberlain Is Accused.

Brussels, Jan. 6.—The Independence Belge prints the first installment of what purports to be correspondence that was suppressed by the British parliamentary commission that investigated Dr. Jameson's raid into the Transvaal. The correspondence, according to the newspaper, establishes Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's complicity in the raid.

Award Has Not Been Decided.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The rumor that the Swiss arbitration tribunal has decided to award £20,000,000 ($100,000,000) to the British claimants in the Delagoa railroad case is received here with ridicule, since the total amount demanded by all concerned does not exceed £4,000,000.

It is said the rendering of a decision in the case cannot possibly be looked for before February.

No News from Buller.

London, Jan. 6.—There is still no important news from the front, but the silence which has descended on Gen. Buller's huge force at the Tugela river is believed to be the prelude of another attempt to reach Ladysmith. Meanwhile the extraordinary tenacity the Boers are displaying around Colesberg, where they even assume the offensive, tends to detract from the success Gen. French is supposed to have achieved.

Britain Will Reply at Once.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Ambassador Choate cabled to the state department Friday that Lord Salisbury would give "an immediate consideration and reply" to this country's representation in the matter of the seizure of flour on board the Mashona, Beatrice and Marie near Delagoa bay. The definite answer is expected within forty-eight hours.

Kills the Boers.

Frere Camp, Natal, Jan. 4.—The lieutenant, sergeant and five men who were reported missing from Capt. Thorpe's patrol, which found the enemy in some force at the Little Tugela bridge Jan. 3, when their presence was discovered by the Boer scouts, having been hotly chased, eluded the Boers and returned to camp.

Fast Shipments of Food.

New York, Jan. 6.—Shippers at this port are sending unusually large quantities of provisions to South Africa to help supply the big British army there. It is said that there are munitions of war aboard some of the ships, but the agents deny it.

Boat Guns Wrecked.

Frere Camp, Jan. 6.—A native who has arrived here reports that two of the Boer guns at Tugela river have been knocked over by the British naval guns. One of the wrecked guns is a forty-pounder.

Boers Recapture Dordrecht.

Cape Town, Jan. 6.—A dispatch from Cape Colony, to the Cape Times states that 700 Boers have recaptured Dordrecht. The Boers blew up a railway bridge and culvert.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Business Men Have Been Occupied with Settlements.

END OF THE YEAR FAILURES.

Last Days of 1899 Add to the Number Hitherto Recorded—Extensive Revision of Prices Looked For—Wheat Is Moving Sluggishly.

New York, Jan. 6.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"Failures in 1899 were 9,393 in number, with liabilities of $123,132,679. The last days of the year added a few to the number and some millions to the known liabilities of firms and banks which failed close to the end, so that commercial defaults reached $90,879,839, of which $30,792,184 was in manufacturing, $48,924,771 in trading and $11,162,954 in brokerage, promoting and other commercial liabilities.

"Most people in business have been so occupied with the accounts and the settlements of the last year that little new business has yet been done. No new tendency in manufacture or in trading appears, and less change than was anticipated in money markets. There is nothing unsound in the business of the great industries, but an extensive revision of prices may disappoint extreme expectations.

"Wheat still moves very sluggishly, with small change in prices. In six months of the crop year about 99,000,000 bushels, flour included, have been exported, against 123,000,000 last year. Atlantic exports have now fallen to only 2,060,926 bushels for the week, against 5,214,420 last year, and Pacific exports were 531,225 bushels, against 614,833 last year. The price is practically unchanged, as also for corn, of which 3,923,195 bushels have been exported for the week, against 3,572,412 last year.

"Failures for the week have been 273 in the United States, against 243 last year, and 25 in Canada, against 24 last year."

Bradstreet's says:

"Perhaps the most notable movement among leading staples is that developed in hogs and hog products, a better realization apparently being had of the features making for strength in those products, notably among which being the reduction in the supply of hogs. That the advance in hog products is beginning to attract more attention seems evident from the extent to which this advance has had sympathetic reflection in the prices of wheat and other cereals."

BLAME ON THE MINE BOSSES.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Brazzill Horror.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 6.—The coroner's jury in the Brazzill mine horror rendered the following verdict:

"We find from the evidence that the mine foreman of said mine was negligent in failing to see that the mine was in safe condition before permitting the workmen to enter it. We also believe that the fire boss of said mine was negligent in failing to make a daily verbal report to the mine foreman, and we believe both the mine and fire boss to be incompetent to perform their respective duties."

There has been no action taken as yet toward prosecuting the incriminated officials. This will be decided upon by a conference of the inspectors with Chief Inspector Roderick at an early date.

County Treasurer in Trouble.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 6.—William Johnson, treasurer of Montgomery county, turned over his books and accounts to the commissioners and was preparing to leave the city to engage in other business when the discovery was made that his accounts were over $10,000 short. The announcement came as a great surprise to his bondsmen as well as Johnson himself, who declares there is some mistake in the accounts. Johnson is a very prominent citizen and has property that will cover his shortage if it be correct. He says he will turn over all his property to save his bondsmen, even if it leaves him without a dollar.

Renews the Modus Vivendi.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 6.—An order in council has been passed renewing the modus vivendi for another year with the United States in regard to the permission of vessels of that country entering any port on the Atlantic coast for purchasing bait, supplies and other purposes.

Shapely Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish form after marriage. The bearing of children is very destructive to the mother's shapeliness. This can be avoided, however, by the use of MOTHER'S FRIEND before baby comes, as this scientific treatment prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of form. MOTHER'S FRIEND also obviates all the danger of child birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing, and thousands gratefully tell of the great good it has done them. Sold by all druggists at 50¢ per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this great remedy, will be sent free to any address by THE BRADFORD REGULATOR COMPANY, Atlanta, Georgia.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12. Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

BACKS DEMAND BY WARSHIPS.

France May Use Force in Collecting Its Claim from Santo Domingo.

Paris, Jan. 6.—The French government has cabled the commandant of the naval squadron in the Atlantic to proceed immediately to Santo Domingo. Washington, Jan. 6.—If the French government attempts forcibly to compel the payment of the Bolsmare-Cacavelli claim by levying upon the revenues of Santo Domingo the matter is likely to become an object of concern to two or three powers, including the United States. The syndicate which finances the island has Belgian, Dutch, French and English, as well as American stockholders, and it is to be presumed that their several governments will anxiously watch over their citizens' interests. The authorities understand that a French man-of-war is at Santo Domingo. The gunboat Machias has also been in the waters of Santo Domingo for some little time.

HOLD THE PLAGUE IN CHECK.

Six Deaths in All Have Occurred in Hawaii.

Honolulu, Dec. 15 (via San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 6).—There have been six deaths from bubonic plague in Honolulu. Five of them occurred within a period of thirty-six hours, Dec. 11 and 12. The sixth occurred Dec. 14. Strict quarantine of the districts in which the plague appeared has been established. A house-to-house cleaning of all the infected districts has been made, and it is believed that no more cases will develop, or if they do, there will be no chance of the disease gaining a foothold or assuming the proportions of an epidemic. Of the six victims, four were Chinese, one was a Gilbert islander and one a Hawaiian woman.

Say the Division Was Unfair.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 6.—A special from Marquette, Mich., says the fund of $184,000 which was raised by a one-sixth mill tax in Michigan for aid of soldiers who came back from the Spanish war in a condition which unfitted them for work has been exhausted, and figures given out at the auditor-general's office in Lansing show that six companies which went from the upper peninsula got over a third of the entire bounty. The amount which they received was $66,893.37. This division of the funds is causing a good deal of bitterness between the soldiers from the two parts of the state, and those of the lower peninsula are accusing the upper peninsula volunteers of having made a regular grab bag out of the fund.

Cabinet Meeting Held.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The meeting of the cabinet Friday was devoid of important features. One of the members stated after adjournment that the question of tendering the good offices of this government for a settlement of the South African dispute, as suggested in the dispatches from Brussels this morning, was not touched upon, and that the question of the seizure of American cargoes by British ships had not come up.

It was definitely decided to send additional troops to Alaska in the spring. This step is absolutely necessary to preserve order.

Federation to Be Disrupted.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 6.—The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen has served notice on the other railroad organizations that it will retire from the Federation of American Railway Employees Jan. 16. The meaning of this is that the federation will be disrupted, though each organization composing it will remain as it was before the federation was formed. It is said the firemen, telegraphers and trainmen will form a new federation, leaving out the conductors.

Lawton Fund Is Closed.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The closing of the Lawton fund Friday showed in cash and subscriptions now on the way a total of $52,595. The cash deposited in the Riggs National bank here to the credit of the fund amounts to $45,821. Checks and cash mailed Friday amount to $6,774.

New York ranks first among the cities, with a total for the year of $60,761,791,900; Boston is second, with $7,086,285,271, and Chicago is third, with $6,612,313,611. The clearings for 1899 were more than double those of 1894.

Gen. White May Escape Trial.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 6.—It is alleged by men here acquainted with Gen. Will White that he is fleeing to Honduras, where there is no extradition treaty. White was formerly quartermaster general of the state militia. He was recently indicted at Lansing on charges of fraud and embezzlement in connection with the purchase of military supplies while in that position.

Move for Puerto Rico Reform.

To Aid Michigan Soldiers.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 6.—Gov. Pinckney on Friday sent a special message to the house recommending the passage of a bill for the relief of the sick and indigent soldiers of the Spanish-American war, the $184,000, which had been appropriated for this purpose having become exhausted. A bill appropriating $75,000 for the purpose was immediately passed. The bill lacked one vote of the two-thirds necessary to give it immediate effect.

Caucus Is Called in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 6.—Calls for caucuses by the senate and house republicans were signed here Friday by both factions of the senatorial contest. The house caucus, which will nominate the candidate of the party for speaker, will meet in committee-room 1 at the capitol this evening at 8 o'clock. The senate caucus will meet at the same time in the senate chamber.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 6.—The Iowa Implement Dealers' association re-elected the following officers: President, J. L. Farrington of Iowa Falls; vice-president, Charles Gates, Jr., of Greene; directors, John Greer of Decorah, J. J. Gaston of Winterset and J. D. Walker of Eagle Grove.

Eczema!
The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

RESPONSE OF THE NATIVE BORN.

By Cyrus
Sylvester.

How British Colonies Have Answered England's Call For Help In Crushing The Boers.

We've drunk to the queen, God bless her,
And the cross swings low to the morn;
Last toast, and best of them all—stand up—
A health to the native born.

The "native born" to whom Kipling refers are the colonial bred subjects of the queen, whose homes are scattered all the way around the globe. They are all supposed to be extremely loyal to the imperial government. Other writers than Mr. Kipling have assured us of this. There remains also the authority of the English music hall singers.

Fresher and stronger proof of the loyalty of England's colonists is the fact that colonial troops are now fighting in South Africa. Some have been sent from Canada and some from New Zealand. Now Lord Roberts wants native lancers from India and Kitchener probably longs for some of his Egyptian troops.

We in America are most interested in the departure of the Canadian troops for the faroff battlefields. Already a full regiment of Canadian infantry is at the front in South Africa, and now a cavalry regiment, composed of members of the Northwestern mounted police, is being equipped.

While the mounted police almost to a man are anxious to be sent to war, it has been suggested that the withdrawal of a large number would be impractical and that there are enough ex-members to fill the ranks many times.

Since the announcement that more troops would be accepted from Canada the recruiting offices of the Dominion have been thronged with volunteers, and the work of selection is now going on with just the same severity of physical requirement as is exercised in the enlistment of regulars for the British service. As a majority of the volunteers are ex-mounted policemen there is little to be done in the way of drilling them for their work in Africa. The Canadian mounted police force is the best drilled and most perfectly disciplined of its kind in the world. Its peculiar adaptability to the service required, that of scouting and general cavalry maneuvering in a rough country, is recognized, the work of the police being practically all mounted work and in a country requiring the greatest possible measure of easy adaptability to circumstances.

The Canadian police think nothing when out on the prairies of making a night of it in a temperature below zero, with saddles for pillows and blankets for shelter. They have the knack of getting through apparently impossible situations with flying colors, and this is directly the result of their training, which involves a greater degree of in-men physically, most of them of sturdy Scotch or Irish extraction, and the moral force of the brilliant red tunic which they wear is a minor revelation of the method by which the tiny British Isles govern an empire. Although there are thousands of Indians and half breeds more dangerous than Indians and rough, reckless miners and outlaws in their domain, they ride the plains and climb the mountains and keep the peace of the third of a continent.

Their pay is not munificent. The commissioner gets $2,400 a year, his assistant $1,000, superintendents $1,400, inspectors, surgeons and veterinary surgeons $1,000 each, petty officers from $2 to $5 cents a day and constables (the title of enlisted men) 50 to 75 cents a day.

Full dress uniform is a scarlet tunic with yellow facings, blue cloth breeches with yellow stripes, white helmet, cavalry boots and cavalry overcoat.

All of these mounted policemen are good shots and excellent horsemen. They may not feel quite so much at home on the South African veldt as on their own prairies, but they are tough enough to stand the hardest kind of a campaign.

The "native born" of New South Wales have answered the call for aid by sending the pick of their "defense force." This force has been organized and brought to a high state of efficiency in spite of the fact that New South Wales has always been the most peaceful of England's colonies. The New South Wales lancers who have been sent to South Africa never faced any enemy more terrible than indigestion or gout, but that is because they lacked the opportunity.

Besides about 2,000 regulars, with over 100 officers, there is in this colony

a volunteer force nearly 1,000 strong, as well as rifle clubs with the same number of members and a police force of equal numbers available at need for service in the field.

While the population of India cannot be reckoned as loyal in the sense in which the Canadians and Australians are loyal, their native soldiers fight faithfully for the empire when called upon to do so.

It is natural that Lord Roberts should turn to the fighting Sikhs of India to strengthen the cavalry arm of his South African army. He has served at their side and commanded them in the years that brought him honors and fame—and they won their share—along the northwest frontier of India, in Afghanistan and even across the seas in Abyssinia.

The Sikhs, Dogras, Jats and Rajputs are among the best fighting men in the world, yet for good reasons the "dominant race" has never countenanced the thought of pitting them against white men. The memory of the mutiny is one.

Queen Victoria has 72,000 British troops in her Indian army, but 8,000 of these are in South Africa shut up with Sir George White in Ladysmith. The native army numbers about 140,000 men. In Bengal are 19 native cavalry regiments, of which nine are lancers. Bombay has seven native cavalry regiments, of which three are lancers. The Punjab has four native cavalry regiments. Madras has three native regiments of lancers, and there are perhaps 6,000 or 7,000 other troops irregularly organized in various commands. There are, therefore, in the regular establishment 35 well trained native cavalry regiments, of which 15 are lancers.

The native cavalry regiment usually consists of four squadrons. It has eight British officers, one medical officer, 17 native officers and 608 noncommissioned officers and men.

If Indian troops are taken to South Africa, the Boers will find themselves facing a most heterogeneous mixture of fighters from all parts of the earth, each of them a "native son" who has rushed across seas to help maintain the empire of "the widow at Windsor."

The Regent Man's Shoe

At $3 50
a pair

Has no equal at this price. Notwithstanding the steadily advancing cost in manufacturing all kinds of footwear we have kept this well known make at the same price—$3.50—as always.

You probably are not aware that there is only one other line in the market that can claim superior shoemaking to this line and that is Hanan's. The Regent at $3.50 has every other make beaten and equal if not in a great many instances, better, than some so-called $5.00 Shoes. We have in stock at all times the variety of lasts to fit your feet with, in colored calf, vicci kid, box calf, enamel—in light, medium and heavy soles.

The price of The Gazette is fifty cents per month, or $5 per year if paid yearly in advance. The Gazette asks no charity. If people think it is worth the price we will be much pleased to deal with them. If not, we do not ask them to subscribe. We are getting out the best possible paper at the price, and selling it upon its merits. We are not selling it under false pretenses, but like any other business concern of good repute, we seek to give full value received for every dollar we take in.

This issue is a fair sample of our paper, and we would be pleased to have your subscription—if you think it worth the price.

The work of the force in controlling large bodies of hostile Indians and whites as well has been marvellous, and their capabilities as a fighting body were well illustrated in the Boer rebellion.
